- 1. Fill out both sides of this form and sign it. You will agree to follow the laws for candidates and their representatives at the poll. Each candidate can have only one person at a time at a poll. The person can be the candidate or a representative, but not both.
- 2. Give this signed form to the deputy returning officer (DRO) as soon as you get to the poll, and swear / affirm the oath before the DRO.

Candidates/representatives CAN:

- ✓ Watch the DRO fold and initial ballots;
- ✓ Look at election documents;
- ✓ Watch people vote from a distance;
- ✓ Take information from the polling record or register and voters list;
- Watch the DRO sort or count ballots after the poll closes;
- Notify the RO or Elections Nunavut if you think the election officers did something wrong; and
- ✓ Get a copy of the Statement of the Poll.

Candidates/representatives CAN NOT:

- * Have more than one person in the polling station at a time;
- Turn on or use a cell phone, camera, recorder, or any other electronic equipment in the polling station;
- Disturb any voters or get in their way;
- Campaign or greet the voters, or try to influence them;
- Disturb the DRO or the Poll Clerk, or get in their way;
- Have buttons or other campaign materials at the polling station;
- Go inside homes or other places people live when they vote with the Mobile Poll;
- Mark anyone's ballot in any way;
- * Hang around outside the polling station; and
- * Handle voting materials.
